"It would be hard to imagine a more appropriate addition to a performing arts center's season than Craig Schulman. His resume is jaw-dropping, his production requirements are quite minimal, his rapport with the audience is easy and intimate... but most importantly his level of artistic product is to my mind unmatched by any other act of its kind.

Here at the Sunrise Theatre Craig received a wild standing ovation halfway through his set, after his heart wrenching rendition of "Bring Him Home" from Les Miserables, the Broadway role he made his own (and I know this because I saw him in that role a half dozen times.)

During "Music of the Night" from Phantom of the Opera, you could have heard the proverbial pin drop in this theatre. I'm not sure anyone was even breathing. The entire audience was transported.

In addition, Craig is a total gentleman and absolute professional, and a great pleasure to work with.

I'd tell any venue that if you believe you have an audience interested in Broadway, booking Craig Schulman is quite frankly a no-brainer. You'd almost be crazy NOT to book him!"
